Updates

Hi everyone, I hope you had a great break last week and have quickly settled into the school routine again.

The children have had a really interesting week. Some have taken part in an engaging interactive musical workshop, playing giant drums, bells, chimes and a saxophone. This has arisen due to a successful bid we made to be part of a longer running project provided by the Amber Trust. The children loved getting involved and were mesmerised by the creative sounds made.

Several pupils also had a local trip out to King Edwards High School, located opposite Saxon Hill, to watch a production of Oliver. Our pupils were transfixed and sat for over an hour watching these young, talented performers presenting this famous Dickens story. The staff and students over at the High School could not have been more accommodating and caring and we really appreciate them including our pupils, who thoroughly enjoyed the whole event. We all agreed this should be repeated every year.

Our Friends of Saxon Hill is a wonderful combination of Parent Support Group and School Fundraising Group. It would be great if you felt you could join us for a session to see what you think. If you are interested please email Sharon Shaw Chair of Friends of Saxon Hill Academy to find out more: Email: friendsofsaxonhill@saxon.set.org

With very best regards, from Your Leadership Team
